

ADMISSION POLICIES

Re-Admission

In the event that a student withdraws from Los Angeles Pacific University or leaves for any reason for more than one year (three consecutive four-month terms), that student must reapply to the university. Students who are dismissed are eligible to reapply after being away for one full four-month term. Any student re-enrolling in LAPU after an absence of more than one year (three consecutive terms) will be subject to new catalog requirements.
