COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM

Courses are identified by a discipline code, followed by a three-digit course number. The course number indicates:

Number	Definition
001-099	remedial (no degree credit)
100-299	lower division
300-499	upper division[1]

[1] Unless specified otherwise in the course description, upper-division courses are open only to students with sophomore classification (https://catalog.apuglobal.edu/undergrad/policy/class-standing/) or above.

The course discipline codes are as follows:

Abbreviation	Subject
ACCT	Accounting
ARTS	Art
BIBL	Biblical Studies
BIOL	Biology
BUSN	Business
CHEM	Chemistry
COMM	Communication Studies
CRJU	Criminal Justice
DMKT	Digital Marketing
ECON	Economics
EDUC	Education
ENGL	English
HCAD	Healthcare Administration
HIST	History
HMGT	Healthcare Management
HSCI	Health Sciences
ISTU	Interdisciplinary Studies
ISYS	Information Systems
MATH	Mathematics
NSCI	Natural Sciences
ORGS	Organizational Studies
PHIL	Philosophy
PSYC	Psychology
PUBH	Public Health
RLGN	Religion
SCHM	Supply Chain Management
SPAN	Spanish
STAT	Statistics